

Children's allergies: Dispelling the myths

Are children born with allergies?

At what age do allergies surface?

Are allergies inherited?

Can allergies be cured?

and much more!

Talk (followed by Q&A) by Dr Ashley Reece

MBChB MSc (Clin Paeds) MA (Med Ed) FRCPCH FHEA FAcadMED

Talk organised by Schopwick Patient Participation Group in association with Schopwick Surgery

Speaker Profile

Consultant Paediatrician & Director of Medical Education at Watford General Hospital. Honorary Clinical Associate Professor, University College London Medical School UK. Associate Professor in Paediatrics, St George's University School of Medicine, Grenada.

He has a special responsibility for the Children's Emergency Department at Watford General Hospital. He holds 3 allergy clinics a week at Watford or Hemel working with consultant colleagues, clinic nurses and their Specialist Nurse in paediatric allergy supporting the families seen in the allergy clinic and developing their allergy services.

Time and Date: 19:30, Thursday February 6 2025

Where: On-line via Zoom

To Register: Click here or scan the QR code

After registering,

you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

More information about our speaker can be found at:

<https://www.westhertshospitals.nhs.uk/services/consultants/dr-ashley-reece>